

The following information was provided to the ISSC on April 12, 2017 by the Washington State Department of Health:

Washington State is conducting a recall due to multiple reports of oyster-associated Norovirus-like illnesses. All shellfish harvested from 3/15/17 to 4/11/17 from the implicated portion of the Hammersley Inlet growing area is being recalled and the area has been closed. The recall area includes Hammersley Inlet from a line just west of SE McComb Way west to the Prohibited line (see attached map). At this time the following companies are identified in this recall: Calm Cove Shellfish Company (WA-1191-SS), Clearwater Shellfish (WA-1772-SS), Gomez Shellfish (WA-1724-SS), Goodro Shellfish (WA-1043-SS), National Fish and Oyster Company (WA-0067-SP), Navy Yard Oyster Company (WA-1410-SS), Padden Seafood (WA-1617-SS), Rivera's Shellfish LLC (WA-1651-SS), Russ Shellfish (WA-1029-SS), S and B Shellfish Company (WA-1393-SS), Salazar Shellfish (WA-1653-SS), Schreiber Shellfish (WA-1042-SS), and Sea Fresh Farms (WA-1457-SS).

We will notify receiving states as we obtain information regarding distribution outside Washington State. It is Washington State's understanding that the implicated shellfish companies are in the process of contacting their customers. We will provide additional information and details of distribution as it becomes available.
