Shipments of four (4) hours or less will not be required to have a time/temperature device or comply with Chapter XIII. 01 A. (2) (c) or (d). Shipments of four (4) hours or less must have documentation as required in Chapter IX. .05 A. [C]~~ ~~E. Shellstock Shipping Critical Control Point. The dealer shall ensure that: (1) Shellstock that is received bearing a restricted shellstock tag shall only be shipped to a certified dealer and shall include specific language detailing the intended use of the shellstock. The transaction record shall indicate the quantity of restricted use shellstock containers. [C] (2) All shellstock received from a dealer which elected to ship restricted use shellstock or shellstock which has been harvested in accordance with Chapter VIII. @.02 A. (3) prior to achieving the internal temperature of 50 °F (10 °C) must be cooled to an internal temperature of 50 °F (10 °C) prior to shipment. The dealer may elect to ship restricted~~

	~~use shellstock and shellstock which has been harvested in accordance with Chapter VIII. @.02 A. (3) prior to achieving the internal temperature of 50 °F (10 °C). Should the dealer choose this option the shipment shall be accompanied with a time/temperature recording device indicating continuing cooling. Shipments of four (4) hours or less will not be required to have a time/temperature recording device. [C]~~
12. Public Health Significance	The reshipping activity and the reshipper certification type (RS) are not receiving from harvesters and are not responsible for demonstrating shellstock has been cooled to 50 °F (10 °C). Further, reshipping and the reshipper certification type are not shipping restricted use product or product that has not been cooled to 50 °F (10 °C). Only original dealers are allowed to conduct these activities and bear this responsibility of demonstrating the hazard has been controlled. Reshippers maintain the control through the supply chain to the final consumer. This proposal fixes the inadvertent addition of two erroneous critical limits to the Chapter XIV. Receiving and Shipping Critical Control Points by deleting critical limits that shall not apply to the reshipping activity nor the Reshipper certification type.
